

ROOMRACCOON
cloud hotel management

The hospitality system of the future

The image displays the RoomRaccoon cloud hotel management system interface across three devices: a laptop, a tablet, and a smartphone.

Laptop Screen (Calendar View): Shows a calendar for November 2020. The interface includes tabs for CALENDAR, RESERVATIONS, DASHBOARD, BREAKFAST, and HOUSEKEEPING. The calendar view shows reservations for various room types (Standard Room, Luxe Room, Suite) with guest names and dates. For example, Marie De Jonge is booked in a Standard Room from Mon 23 Nov to Wed 25 Nov. The laptop is a MacBook Pro.

Tablet Screen (Rates & Availability View): Shows a detailed view of room rates and availability for a specific date range (06-11-2020 to 18-11-2020). It includes a table with columns for room types and dates, showing rates and availability status. The tablet is a MacBook Pro.

A man with short brown hair, wearing a dark polo shirt, is sitting in a dimly lit room. He is looking off-camera to the right with a thoughtful expression. In the background, there is a dark wall with a framed abstract painting and a large vase filled with dried orange flowers.

“RoomRaccoon has helped us improve the hotel’s operations with the simplicity of the system from the front end... giving me more time to focus on the hotel and the guest experience.”

Jayson van Noordwyk – General Manager of O’Two Hotel, South Africa.

A woman with dark hair tied back, wearing a grey sleeveless top, is sitting on a brown leather sofa in a bright, modern interior. She is smiling and looking towards the camera. The background shows a dining area with a white pillar, a table, and large windows with sheer curtains.

“Since moving to RoomRaccoon we’ve seen an influx of direct bookings owing to the increased visibility we have online. The fact that it’s so user-friendly, where clients can pay online immediately – makes it so much easier for them, and for us.”

Amy Lawson – Assistant General Manager of Clouds Estate, South Africa.
